

With nothing going on and but little to look forward to society is not very spirited these early June days. Of course there are the two or three weddings due this month, and they have excited a considerable degree of interest; some weddings that were confidently expected to materialize this spring are still in the distant future, and there will be a good many gaps in the social activity of the present month.

The law class of the state university completed its work Monday. Twenty three students will receive diplomas on June 13. The graduates are as follows: Grant F. Ashby, H. A. Barkley, W. J. Brennan, W. M. Cain, E. J. Camack, B. F. Dillon, D. E. Hayward, I. H. Hatfield, G. H. Irish, H. B. Hicks, J. H. Hooper, G. W. Johnson, W. C. Lambert, G. C. McAllister, D. E. Peiper, Nellie M. Richardson, L. C. Sloan, C. Y. Smith, G. S. States, T. F. A. Williams, Owsley Wilson, Fred Woodward and W. F. Wolfe.

The Round Table met Monday night at the residence of C. H. Morrill. Mr. H. M. Bushnell discussed the new political party meaning the new free coinage party. There was a good attendance and an interesting debate ensued. Those present were: Messrs. E. T. Hartley, N. S. Harwood, Albert Watkins, E. H. Chapin, F. D. Crim, M.D., W. Morton Smith, S. H. Burnham and Professor Strong. The next meeting will be held a week from Monday night at the residence of Dr. Crim, and Mr. Harwood will lead.

Invitations to the wedding of Charles L. Burr and Miss Anne Funke have been issued. The wedding will take place at high noon, June 12, at the First Congregational church. Rev. Lewis Gregory will officiate. There will be no bridesmaids, but the bride will have three flower girls, as follows: Brownie Bess Baum, of Omaha; Louise Burnham and Jessie Outcalt. Frank L. Burr will be best man. The ushers will be W. E. Clark, W. F. Meyer, Lew Marshall, R. M. Joyce, W. F. Kelley and W. Morton Smith.

Lieutenant J. J. Pershing spent Sunday in Beatrice.

The university battalion is encamped on the Chautauqua grounds at Beatrice. The boys are expected back this afternoon.

Mrs. George Wing has returned from an extended visit in California.

Beman G. Dawes left Wednesday for his former home in Marietta, Ohio.

Miss Estella Stire left for Galesbury, Ill., Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Huffman and family are in Chicago.

Miss Van Brunt gave a reception to her art pupils at 1443 L street, yesterday afternoon.

This evening Chancellor and Mrs. Canfield will receive the members of the faculty and their wives and all of the graduates of the university at their residence.

Mr. and Mrs. George Lowrey have returned from Manitou.

Professor Ward, of the University of Nebraska, will this year have charge of a party under the direction of the Michigan fish commission, whose purpose it will be to investigate the biological conditions of the lake region. The party will include Professor Marsh, of Beloit, Wis.; Professor Birge, of Madison, Wis., and others, and will probably be out three months. A revenue cutter will be placed at their disposal.

The "Chimes of Normandy" is to be produced by home talent at the Lansing theater, June 6, under the direction of Mrs. P. V. M. Raymond. The leading parts will be taken as follows: Serpolette, Miss Minnie Gaylord; Germaine, Miss Jessie Huffman; Henri, H. J. W. Seemark; Grenicheux, Dr. E. H. Eddy; Gaspard, Walter Keens; The Bailiff, Arthur Kellum; Notary, L. S. Dunbar.

Invitations to the commencement exercises of the senior class of the University of Nebraska have been issued. The exercises will begin on Friday, June 8, with the annual senior promenade in the house of representatives in the state capitol. On Saturday there will be a joint program of literary societies, Sunday the baccalaureate sermon will be delivered. On Monday there will be a musical recital and class day exercises are fixed for Tuesday morning. The commencement exercises proper will occur the following morning.

Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Sherwood and Misses Mary and Emma Sherwood left Tuesday for Pittsburg. They are en route to their future home in New York.

Professor Willard Kimball, who is to have charge of the new music department in the state university, is in the city arranging for the erection of the new building.

A. Koch-Andriano, of Omaha, spent Sunday in the city.

L. L. H. Austin returned from Denver Tuesday.

Sherman Canfield will manage Sheridan Inn, Sheridan, Wyo., this season. This hotel has been purchased by Mr. Canfield and his father and Buffalo Bill.

With New York society women adopting bicycle riding as their last diversion, little surprise need be felt at the news from London that the nobility has at last come to the public use of the kodak, the Princess of Wales and her young daughters having each been armed with the universal machine at the annual sports at Dersingham, and taking several snap shots during the afternoon, remarks a New York contemporary. The princess herself took several photographs of the successful competitors in the sports.

Ed A. Church left Tuesday for San Francisco, where his "Faust" company will play a two week's engagement.

D. G. Wing and his sister, Miss Alice Wing, returned from Davenport, Ia., Sunday.

There is a run upon "yellow" in London just now. They have yellow books, yellow dresses, yellow curtains, and now they are to have a yellow play. Miss Olga Brandon is to exploit at a matinee at the Prince of Wales theater, on Thursday next, a new drama by Mr. Henry Hoyte, called "The Yellow Curtain."

"When the Whirled attacked the Metropolitan club last Sunday in a very remarkable statement of men that had been rejected and others that had withdrawn from that institution, it was thought that perhaps Joseph Pulitzer himself had come up for membership, and not having the traditional wedding garment was cast into exterior darkness," says "The Saunterer" in Town Topics. "I learn, however, that it is not Pulitzer but his society editor, Mr. Ward McAllister, that has the grievance against the Metropolitan and its governors. Since Mr. McAllister has taken to writing for the World and giving away club and society secrets, his fellow members in the union have been very wary of him. Franklin Bartlett is reported as having said that not another newspaper or literary man should be a member of that club as long as he was a governor or had anything to do with the executive committee. Ballard Smith was smuggled in somehow through Schuyler Crosby, but the offense is not to be repeated. Several men whose connection with newspapers is only